The Third International Symposium on “Returning to Children” The 2018 International Conference on Philosophy and Children(ICPC)

In current China, with the development of the views on children and childhood and the progressing of deep educational research and reform, philosophy for children (P4C) has gradually become a central issue in the educational field. In order to summarize the academic experiences and practical contributions of philosophy for children in the past four decades, to reflect its problems and challenges, and to promote the development of P4C in future, the Third International Symposium on “Returning to Children” that specially focuses on the relationship between philosophy and children will be held in Hangzhou, China on 21-23 August, 2018. It will be hosted by Professional Council on Basic Theories in China National Society of Early Childhood Education (CNSECE), undertook by Hangzhou College of Early Childhood Teachers Education of Zhejiang Normal University, and supported by the Center of Philosophy for Children from Hangzhou Normal University and the Affiliated Primary School of Northeast Normal University (NENU) and the Faculty of Education of NENU.
